RANCH

Grand in scale, Ranch is a contemporary collection of living and dining furniture made predominantly from solid American white oak and finished with a natural oil, to give a matt tactile finish.

The range has thick chunky frame end sections and legs giving a substantial appearance complemented by large framed doors on the storage items. A simple unassuming solid oak handle sympathetically blends with the design enhancing the natural beauty of oak.

All drawers have a dampened soft close mechanism, and all shelves are adjustable / removable providing versatile storage and display solutions.
